Gee I Wish I Had Noticed That! (Identifying Red Flags) By Brian Altschul

SEE LINKS BELOW

When we study a company there are often warning signs hinting at potential issues. These signs can help reduce the risk of judgment errors about the company. We often miss these red flags because we are not sure what to look for. This session will cover many of these red flags and help you to avoid saying “Gee! I wish I had noticed that.”

Brian Altschul

Our guest presenter is a BetterInvesting New Jersey chapter director and a past president. He is a former member of an online investment club and was a founding member and former president of a local investment club. He has been running a monthly stock study group in northern New Jersey since 2004.

Professionally, with a BS in mathematics and an MBA in computer systems, Brian is the Technology Officer of a large department, part of a large organization.

The "Gee I Wish I Had Noticed That! (Identifying Red Flags)" webinar was presented on March 31, 2021. If you were unable to attend or wish to view it again a webinar recording and handouts are available at these blue links.
